

Disneyland Fastpass

Description ▲

Save your place in line for some of your favorite attractions while you enjoy the rest of the park.

How to Use FASTPASS Service

With Disney FASTPASS Service you can cut your time standing in line, so you can do more with your day.

1. Look for the FASTPASS Distribution sign near the entrance of an attraction.
2. Check the Return Time displayed on this sign.
 - This time indicates when you should return to enjoy the attraction using your FASTPASS ticket.
 - For attractions, the return time is a 1-hour window - e.g. 1:10 PM to 2:10 PM. Please return within the one hour window printed on your Disney FASTPASS ticket.
 - For shows, your return time will be for a specific performance.
3. If the return time works for you, insert your valid Disneyland Resort admission ticket, readmission ticket or Annual Passport into the FASTPASS machine.
4. The machine will generate a FASTPASS ticket printed with your return time.
5. Return to the FASTPASS Return entrance at your Return Time, show your FASTPASS ticket to the Cast Member and enjoy the attraction with a minimal wait.

Please Keep in Mind

- FASTPASS tickets are valid only on the day of issue.
- Everyone in your party using the FASTPASS Return entrance must have a FASTPASS ticket
- FASTPASS Service machines will not issue another ticket until the time stated on your current one.
- FASTPASS tickets are subject to availability.
